

2020 Pearland Elections

NOVEMBER 3

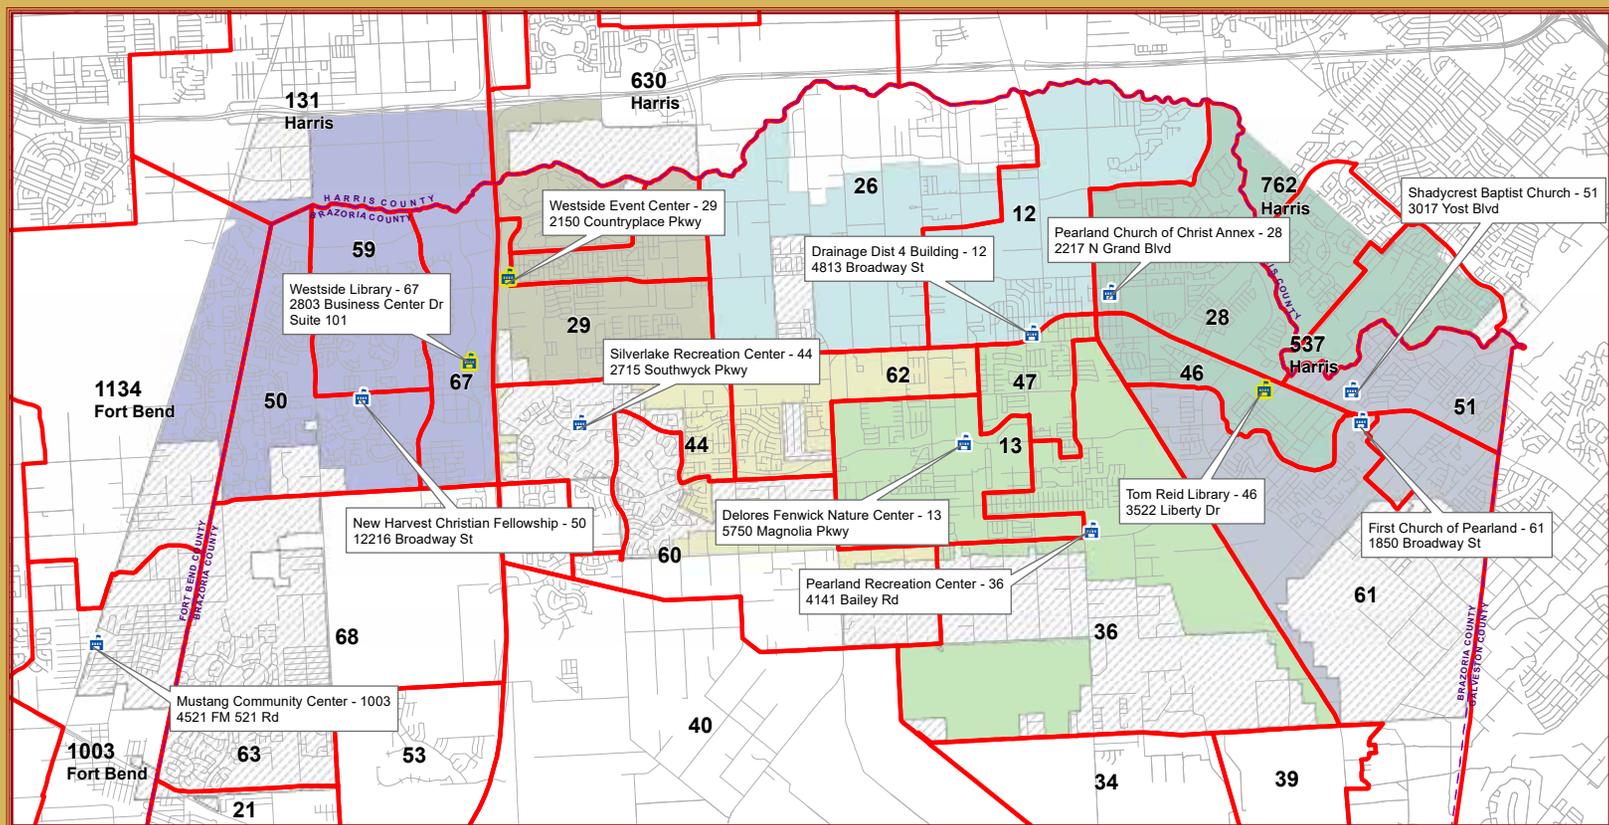

2020 is an unprecedented year for elections. The registered voters of Pearland will elect a new Mayor for the first time in 37 years! The Pearland ballot will also include City Council races and amendments to the City's Charter. It is important for you to vote for what matters most to you.

Registered voters can vote for all applicable races, including the City races. Voters can vote at any countywide polling location near where you live, work, or play!
